

Mark & The Master: Complete (in)Dependence

Mark 10:13-31

February 9, 2014 Kemptville CRC

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them for the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

- "Children should be seen and not heard." Do we practice this at all in this church? How? Is that right?
- the scene in Mark 10:
 - what did they want for their children?
 - who brings the kids?
 - what children do they bring?
 - the disciples response....
- Motivations for the disciples' response.....
(do you think we ever get caught in this thinking?)
- faith formation and children:
- Do you agree with my position ("If forced to choose, I'll come down on the side of the children every time.")? Why? Why not?
- Child-like VS child-ish.....
- God isn't interested in people who.....
- God has a tender spot in his heart for.....
- What DOES Jesus do for the children?
How does that compare to what their parents had asked for?
- How is the story of the Rich Young Man a counter-point to the story of the children?

MY QUESTION

Mark & The Master: Complete (in)Dependence

Mark 10:13-31

February 9, 2014 Kemptville CRC

"Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them for the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these."

- "Children should be seen and not heard." Do we practice this at all in this church? How? Is that right?
- the scene in Mark 10:
 - what did they want for their children?
 - who brings the kids?
 - what children do they bring?
 - the disciples response....
- Motivations for the disciples' response.....
(do you think we ever get caught in this thinking?)
- faith formation and children:
- Do you agree with my position ("If forced to choose, I'll come down on the side of the children every time.")? Why? Why not?
- Child-like VS child-ish.....
- God isn't interested in people who.....
- God has a tender spot in his heart for.....
- What DOES Jesus do for the children?
How does that compare to what their parents had asked for?
- How is the story of the Rich Young Man a counter-point to the story of the children?

MY QUESTION